

Weatherford Independent School District

Student Dress Code

2006-2007

PHILOSOPHY

Since personal grooming has a direct bearing upon atmosphere conducive to learning and since propriety of dress and neatness in grooming is reflected in the general welfare of the school, students are expected to come to school appropriately dressed and neatly groomed; clothing shall be clean and in good repair. Recognizing that extremes in dress and poor grooming in school is a definite hindrance to the building of proper values and to an environment conducive to academic endeavors, the school principal is charged with the responsibility of insisting that the student body maintains acceptable dress and proper grooming while in attendance during school hours and at school functions.

The student and his/her parents may determine the student's personal dress and grooming standards, provided that the student's dress and grooming:

- 1) shall not give school officials reason to believe that such dress or grooming will disrupt, interfere with, disturb, or detract from school activities; or

BRIDGE CAMPUS (DISTRICT'S DISCIPLINARY ALTERNATIVE EDUCATION PROGRAM) DRESS CODE

The dress code for the District's Disciplinary Alternative School, Bridge, shall contain additional, stringent, dress code requirements. This dress code shall be presented to the student and parents at the time of placement in the Bridge School.

CONSIDERATIONS

In reviewing with students the appropriateness of dress and grooming to meet the prescribed standards, school officials are to consider:

- 1) rules are in effect for the time the district has jurisdiction over the student;
- 2) dress for social functions and special activities will be determined by the sponsors of these functions and will be announced prior to the occasion;
- 3) in connection with extra-curricular activities, the coach, sponsor, or other person in charge may regulate the dress and grooming of students who participate in the activity.

Students electing to participate in courses and activities not required to complete graduation requirements must meet reasonable dress and grooming specifications prescribed by the teacher, coach, sponsor, or director of the course or activity. Some examples of these are U.I.L. competitive activities, such as band, speech, choir, drama, and all team sports; all career and technology cooperative work programs, such as Distributive Education and Industrial Cooperative Training; and Vocational and Industrial Arts courses where long hair and loose clothing may endanger the student.

VIOLATIONS

The administration of each campus shall provide proper notification to students and parents prior to any change in dress and grooming standards.

If the student's dress or grooming is objectionable under these provisions, the principal shall request the student make appropriate corrections. If the student refuses, the principal shall notify the student's parent(s) and request they make the necessary correction. If both the student and parent refuse, the principal shall take disciplinary action. Appropriate disciplinary procedures shall be followed to include removal from school until the student is in compliance with the dress code.

The building administration shall use its discretion in questions concerning the dress code. Where there is a question on the dress or appearance of a student, the school administrators' decision shall be final. Students who repeatedly disregard rules of dress or grooming shall be considered insubordinate and shall be subject to further discipline management techniques as described in the student code of conduct.
